Head of Rural Banking Services

The National Bank of Vanuatu is undertaking a significant expansion program for its Rural Banking Services to the rural communities of Vanuatu over the coming years. The program development has commenced and the principal objective is to increase the availability and utilization of sustainable financial services to our rural population in order provide greater access to banking services and importantly to boost participation in income generating activities that contribute to nationwide economic growth. State of the art new and evolving technologies will be adapted to provide these services in a cost effective and efficient manner.

The bank is seeking to recruit a suitably qualified highly experienced Ni Vanuatu senior manager to fill the position of Head of Rural Banking Services. The position will be based at the Bank's head office in Port Vila and it is envisaged that there will be a requirement for regular inter island travel.

The Role

This is a new executive role reporting to the Managing Director. It will be responsible for the overall leadership and administration of the new business unit and will assume control of the bank's existing successful Microfinance lending team. The Head of Rural Banking Services will be part of the executive management team and be involved in bank wide financial and strategic planning and the setting of objectives for his/her team, as well as day to day management of the business unit, which will include the rural branch network.

The Person

The individual must have an excellent knowledge of the provincial regions of Vanuatu and a very good understanding of the needs of rural communities in economic terms and development and banking requirements. A highly demonstrable strong track record of past success in rural and economic development initiatives as well as a good understanding of banking principles is mandatory for this role.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

It is expected that the successful applicant will possess:

- Tertiary qualifications in commerce or a similar field
- At least 10 years experience at senior management level
- Demonstrated leadership qualities
- Good communication and people management skills
- High level demonstrated project management skills
